

Seven Principles of the Constitution Party

Life

For all human beings, from conception to natural death.

Liberty

Freedom of conscience and actions for the self-governed individual.

Family

One husband and one wife with their children as divinely instituted.

Property

Each individual's right to own and steward personal property without government burden.

Constitution and Bill of Rights

Interpreted according to the actual intent of the Founding Fathers.

States' Rights

Everything not specifically delegated by the Constitution to the federal government is reserved for the state and local jurisdictions.

American Sovereignty

American government committed to the protection of the borders, trade, and common defense of Americans, and not entangled in foreign alliances.
